

Please read these instructions completely.

Thank you for your interest in joining the Supplemental Instruction team! Please be sure to read the following instructions carefully.

1. Complete the application electronically . All applications must be ped. Har

Applicant Information

Full Name: _____ Date: _____
Last First M.I.

Address: _____
Street Address Apartment/Unit #

City

Please answer the following questions.

Are you involved in any clubs, organizations, activities, etc. on campus? (Please list the activity/organization and include the average number of hours per week).

How did you hear about the SI Program?

List 2 strengths you have that you feel are important as a potential SI Leader:

What specific study strategies do you practice in order to achieve academic success?

Discuss any previous/current experience you have and other characteristics that would enhance your interaction with students as an SI leader .

Are you comfortable speaking/facilitating group discussions to a large number of students (20 or more)? Briefly explain.

Pretend you are a student attending an

If selected as an SI Leader, you will be required to attend training sessions the week before classes begin. Group facilitated learning techniques, large group presentations, developing materials, and guidelines for keeping and submitting monthly paperwork will be discussed during

Duties and Responsibilities of ALL SI Leaders:

- 9 Attend class lectures of a specific course section (3 hours/week).
- 9 Hold three 1-hour SI sessions each week.
- 9 Prepare session outlines and materials.
- 9 Maintain SI Moodle page & attendance
- 9 Attend monthly training sessions
- 9